COMMUNITY ORGANIZATION RE BRITISH COLUMBIA SOCIETIES ACT

Centennial Committees in larger communities would be wise to consider incorporation under the British Columbia Societies Act. This would enable Local Committees to acquire and administer lands or properties without the risk of individual members of the Committees becoming personally liable for debts of the corporation.

Any barrister or solicitor would be able to assist a Local Centennial Committee with its incorporation. Also, further information in this regard may be obtained by writing to: Mr. A. H. Hall, Registrar of Companies, Law Courts, 850 Burdett Avenue, Victoria, British Columbia.
